The MEX Microprobe - Low Energy Microscopy at MEX1

Thursday, 31 October 2024 15:00 (30)

Dr. Simon James will present the progress on the MEX1 Microprobe and its performance. This is an additional instrument on a mainly spectroscopy-focused beamline that can provide further insights on materials when scientists are interested in Low-Z elements.

Presenter(s) : Dr JAMES, Simon (ANSTO Australian Synchrotron)
